

Language Identification

Listen closely and check off each phrase as you hear it.

- [] The country is South Sudan, formerly a part of Sudan. It became independent in 2011.
- [] a conflict broke out within South Sudan between tribal factions led by the president and his former vice president.
- [] The Lost Boys. Those were children separated from their families during Sudan's civil war.
- [] Daniel still has nightmares of the day in 1987 when a militia from the north attacked his village.
- [] I ran in a different direction that I was not even know. So from then, I never returned home.
- [] Daniel moved on foot for hundreds of miles
- [] Fourteen years after first fleeing, Daniel was at a camp in Kenya with nearly 60,000 other refugees.
- [] A friend of mine came and said, hey Daniel, you are leaving on the 2nd of September.
- [] Denver became Daniel's new home. He became an American citizen, and he went to college.
- [] In 2011, Daniel decided to move back to his homeland, and he's been working for a nonprofit there, helping to build schools.
- [] Shooting erupted in Bor. Daniel rounded up his family, and they headed for the swampy forest.
- [] There was nothing for us to eat. The children were crying. The mothers were speechless.
- [] Daniel, your son was one of the people who got sick.
- [] There was not any medical facility available. They were all broken in, and they were looted.
- [] The family did get lucky. After a few days, they were able to get on a flight to Kenya, and Daniel's sick baby made it to a hospital in Nairobi.
- [] When I saw myself, and the son, and a wife running again to the bushes that I went when I was only nine years old, it break my heart. I was helpless.
- [] I know there are people who are still hiding under the bushes now.
- [] I would say I'm 90% optimistic about the future of South Sudan.
- [] A second war experience in my own life. And I don't want my son to be in this crisis again.