

Language Identification

Listen closely and check off each phrase as you hear it.

- [ ] Achebe, who's now 78, has just published a collection of essays
- [ ] Chinua Achebe says he grew up identifying with Marlow.
- [ ] He could pull his reader into the fray.
- [ ] A time came when I reached the appropriate age and realized that these writers had pulled a fast one on me.
- [ ] And he would give them names that are really unmentionable.
- [ ] Conrad defenders rose up and said, no, he was really an anti-imperialist.
- [ ] I didn't carry it away, I simply said, read it this way and that's all I have done.
- [ ] That's Nigerian novelist Chinua Achebe speaking about Joseph Conrad's novella "Heart of Darkness."