

Language Identification

Listen closely and check off each phrase as you hear it

- [] In 1912 Lawrence Massachusetts was one of the textile capitals of the world.
- [] They came from over 30 countries and spoke more than 45 different languages.
- [] Mills were damp and hot and noisy.
- [] Lot of people lost fingers and arms.
- [] 100 years ago the Bread and Roses strike drew the nation's attention.
- [] You could survive 7 years pretty much in a spinning room.
- [] People lived in very crowded conditions.
- [] Child labor was very very typical during this time period.
- [] That wasn't because parents were cruel. It's just that they needed every little hand, every cent.
- [] It was basically almost all immigrants.
- [] Lawrence ranked in the top ten for infant mortality.
- [] The Polish woman in the Everett Mill discovered their paychecks were short.
- [] That night was really full of meetings.