

New Language Identification Organizer

Listen closely and check off each sentence or partial sentence as you hear it.

- ☐ French or Latin would have been more likely for the time.
- ☐ on the windswept northern coast of the county of Kent,
- ☐ Somerset Maugham lived nearby.
- ☐ The dreams of men, the seed of commonwealth, the germs of empires.
- ☐ Good place for the children to have their lunch.
- ☐ all celebrating the life of the great chronicler of Victorian England
- ☐ the Royal Navy had a naval base on this site from 1613.
- ☐ Everything revolved around the dockyard
- ☐ because Britain in the early 21st century has become the new America
- ☐ He's a salt of the earth Englishman who's involved in his local community.
- ☐ But there are a huge number of white people here who feel they are the real British people
- ☐ In this country, if you put a flag up at Charing Cross or Waterloo, there'd be an outcry.
- ☐ ven in the economic downturn, Britain still has hugely successful parts of its economy.
- ☐ That spark seems somehow to have been extinguished.