

Language Identification Organizer

Listen closely and check off each sentence or partial sentence as you hear it.

- [] The plots of young adult dystopia can be pretty amazing
- [] You get a vaccine for delirium which prevents you from falling in love
- [] that one was really scary because it seemed like something that could actually happen
- [] clones working in a field and, of course, a rebellion against the status quo
- [] Amanda Heidema, the librarian leading the discussion group, jumps in
- [] In fact, screwed up adults actually play a major role in a lot of young adult dystopian fiction
- [] Their parents impose curfews, and nobody lets them drive until they're 16
- [] that there's a lot of moral and ethical gray area out there
- [] As the brain develops, so does executive function skills, understanding argument
- [] they have all that and big emotional ideas like justice, fairness, loyalty and mortality
- [] The fact that it's fiction allows kids to flirt with those kinds of questions without really doing anything